In New Hampshire the Democrats carr, one Congressional district by a small plurality (45) The other two are Republicans who elect the state officers and have a large majority in the legislature.

The secate adjourned without electtion a president pro tem and there being an Speaker of the house, if both President and vice President should die before the meeting of Congress to take the place.

An extra session of Congress will be called about the first of May, This action is made oncorrary by the neglect of the last Congress to pass the army appropriation bill. The Democratic close questions.

the senate adjourned Saturday after acting on most of the naminations sent in by the President. Fred Douglass was confirmed Marshal of the District of Columbia though it was strongly opposed by most of the Democrats. Half a dozen of that party voted for his confirmation including three or four southern men.
